

Chapter 3 (1 - 6)

Jesus again went to a prayer hall on the Sabbath. In the hall was a man with a withered hand. The religious leaders were watching Jesus to see if he would heal on the Sabbath, hoping for something to use against him.

Jesus said to the man with the withered hand "Stand in the middle of the hall". Then he said to the religious leaders "Is it against the law on the Sabbath to do good?" They remained silent. Grieved that they were so obstinate, Jesus looked angrily round at them, and said to the man "Stretch out your hand". He stretched it out, and it was healed. The leaders left and began to plot how to get rid of Jesus.

Jesus, don't let my heart become obstinate

Chapter 3 (7 - 12)

Jesus went again to the Sea of Galilee. Great crowds of people from all over the country went to him. They had heard what he was doing and wanted to see him

Large crowds of sick people pushed forward, trying to touch Jesus. They had heard how he had healed so many sick people.

Jesus, please heal my friend (..name..) who is sick
