

Chapter 18 (35 - 43)

As Jesus entered Jericho, there was a blind beggar sitting by the road. People in the crowd told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

So he called out

"Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me".

Some people told him to be quiet, but he just shouted all the louder "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me". Jesus stopped and asked him

"What do you want me to do for you?"

He replied "Sir, let me see again".

Jesus said to him

"Receive your sight. Your faith has saved you".

Instantly his sight returned, and he followed Jesus, praising God.

Jesus, please heal my blind friend (..name..)

Chapter 19 (1 - 9)

In Jericho there was a wealthy man named Zacchaeus, a senior tax collector. He wanted to see what kind of person Jesus was.

But because of his short stature, he couldn't see over the crowd. So he climbed a tree.

Jesus saw him up the tree and said "Zacchaeus, come down, because I will stay at your house today". Zacchaeus hurried down and welcomed Jesus warmly. People complained "He's gone to stay at the house of an outcast"
