

Chapter 19 (38 - 42)

Joseph of Arimathaea, a disciple of Jesus, asked Pilate for the body of Jesus. Pilate agreed, and Jesus' body was taken down from the cross.

Another man, Nicodemus, brought burial spices. He and Joseph wrapped Jesus' body in linen cloths with the spices.

Since the Passover was due to begin at sunset, they put the body in an unused tomb close to the place of Crucifixion.

Jesus, dead in the tomb, please give eternal life to everyone who dies today

Chapter 20 (1 - 10)

Before dawn the next morning, Sunday, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb. She saw the stone had been moved from the tomb's entrance.

She ran to Peter and John and said

"Someone has taken the Lord out of the tomb".

They ran back to the tomb. Peter went in first.

He saw that the linen cloths were on the ground.

But the cloth that had been around Jesus' head was not on the ground.

It was neatly folded and in a place by itself.

Then John went into the tomb.

He saw, and he believed.

Jesus, I believe you rose from the dead.

Please increase my faith