

Chapter 15 (20 - 22)

Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first to rise of all who have died.

Death came through one man, Adam, and rising from the dead has come through one man, Jesus.
Just as all people die because of Adam,
so all people can live because of Christ.

Jesus, may all people have eternal life

Chapter 15 (54 - 58)

When this mortal nature has put on immortality,
then the words of Scripture will come true:

"Death has been defeated. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?"

Never give up, dear friends, never admit defeat.
Keep on working at the Lord's work always.
Know that, in the Lord, no work is in vain.

Jesus, please give me more faith to "keep going"

Chapter 16 (5 - 24)

I hope to visit you after I have been to Macedonia.
I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost, because an important door has opened for my work, despite opposition.

Be brave and strong. Let everything be done in love. The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

Jesus, help me be brave and strong, like Paul
