

Take care not to turn away from the living God.
Keep encouraging one another, so that sin does not cause you to turn away from God.

Jesus, help me stay focused on you

Chapter 4 (12 - 16)

The word of God is something alive and active.
It goes deep into our hearts

In Jesus we have the supreme high priest who is now in the highest heaven.
He knows how weak we are. He himself was tempted in every way, but did not sin

Let us be confident in approaching his throne of grace. He will give us grace when we are in need of help.

Jesus, our high priest, help me when I'm weak

Chapter 6 (11 - 19)

May every one of you persevere in your Christian life. Never give up.

Remember how Abraham persevered in following God, despite so many difficulties.

Take a firm grip on the hope that is held out to us by God. This hope is an anchor for us, a lifeline going right up to heaven.

Jesus, you are my anchor. You are my lifeline
