

Chapter 13 (24 - 30; 36 - 43)

Jesus told the people another story:

The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. An enemy came and sowed weeds in the same field

When the good seed sprouted, so did the weeds. The man's servants asked if they should get rid of the weeds. "No", said the man, "you might damage the good seed if you do that. Let them both grow till harvest time. Then burn the weeds"

Then Jesus explained his story: "I am the sower. The field is the world. The good seed stands for people of good will. The weeds stand for people of bad will. The enemy is Satan

At the end of the world, I will send my angels to sort out the good and the bad people. Bad people will go to hell. Good people will go to heaven"

Jesus, please protect good people from bad people

Chapter 13 (31 - 33; 44; 47 - 50)

Jesus said to the people:

The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed. It's the smallest of all seeds. But it becomes a big bush, then a big tree that the birds live in
