

Chapter 14 (1 - 7)

Paul and Barnabas went to another city, Iconium. As usual, their first stop was the local Jewish prayer hall. Many Jews became believers, as did many non-Jewish people

During their stay in Iconium, Paul and Barnabas preached fearlessly for the Lord. And the Lord supported them by allowing miracles to be worked by them

But their success again aroused opposition, and they were in danger of being stoned. So they went to Lycaonia and preached the Good News there.

Jesus, please help Gospel workers
by allowing miracles to be worked by them

Chapter 14 (8 - 18)

In Lycaonia, there was a man who had never walked in his life, because his feet were crippled from birth. As he listened to Paul preaching, Paul noticed him and saw that he had the faith to be cured. Paul said in a loud voice

"Get to your feet! Stand up!"

The crippled man jumped up and began to walk. The local people thought that Paul and Barnabas must be gods, so Paul said to them

"We are only human beings like you.
