

He has filled my life with sadness and fear
and yet he doesn't answer my prayer."

Dear God, in times of darkness, with Jesus we pray
"My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"

Chapters 25 – 31

Bildad then reminded Job that God's power is beyond human understanding.
No one should question God's actions.

Job replied:

"I swear by God who denies me justice that as long as I have breath, I will live a life of innocence.

I remember how I have always lived as a friend of God:
how I helped the poor, the orphan, the dying, the widow,
the blind, the lame.

I remember how I made a pact with my eyes
not to linger on any other woman but my wife.

I remember how I have never put my trust in riches or fame.
I have always trusted only in the Lord.

Yet now people laugh at me and make fun of me.
They avoid me and even spit on me.

When will God answer me?"

Dear God, please help me to imitate Job's way of life

Chapters 32 – 39

Job's three friends had no more to say.
But a young man named Elihu,
decided to join the conversation.
