

Psalms 120, 121

I call to the Lord in the hour of my distress:
"Lord save me from people who speak with lying lips."

Long enough have I been dwelling with those who hate peace.
I am for peace, but they are for fighting.

I lift up my eyes to the mountains.
From where shall come my help?

My help shall come from the Lord
who made heaven and earth.

The Lord is our guard and our shade.
Day and night we shall not be afraid.

The Lord will guard our going and coming both now and forever.

Lord, please protect us from danger, day and night

Psalm 122

I rejoiced when I heard them say
"Let us go to God's house."

And now our feet are standing within your gates,
O Jerusalem.

For the peace of Jerusalem pray "Peace be to your homes."

For love of the house of the Lord I will ask for your good.

Lord, may your peace be in our hearts and homes
