

Chapters 11 – 21

Some kings in the north combined to fight the Israelites. But the Lord delivered them into the power of Israel.

Eventually the whole country had rest from war, and the land was divided up among the 11 tribes.

So it was that the Lord gave the Israelites all the land he had sworn to give their ancestors. They took possession of it and settled there.

The Lord granted them peace on all their frontiers just as he had sworn to their ancestors.

Of all the promises that the Lord had made to the House of Israel, not one failed. All were fulfilled.

Dear Lord, please give peace to nations troubled by war

Chapter 22

The campaign to subdue the whole land had taken a long time.

Joshua especially thanked the tribes from across the Jordan for their help.

These tribes - Reuben, Gad and Manasseh - had been given land on the Eastern side of the Jordan, but still helped in the campaign to control the Western side.
